

END EXCLUSION

End Exclusion is a short-term (June to November 2006) Canada-wide initiative or project designed to celebrate successes of people with disabilities. We are building towards a Forum (Meeting) in Ottawa on November 2, 2006. We want to create an INCLUSIVE and ACCESSIBLE Canada so everyone can belong and participate!

The goals of the initiative are to:

talk with our politicians at the federal and provincial/territorial levels and all Canadians about how to expand on disability supports and address or ease poverty and exclusion of Canadians with disabilities; mobilize or pull together and expand collaboration or partnership within the disability community and beyond; and raise the profiles or get a better understanding about Canadians with disabilities and their families.

Here's how you can help:
